

The Etz Chaim Project:

2. The Chief Rabbi's Communities

As the Chief Rabbi of the United Hebrew Congregations of the Commonwealth, the Chief Rabbi serves as the spiritual authority for 120 traditional Orthodox Jewish communities across the UK.

These are split into the United Synagogue (US) communities, which mostly encompass London-based congregations that take membership of the US synagogal body, and independent congregations in the provinces of England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales.

