

Luton United Synagogue invites you to an interview with The Rabbi who visited Pakistan Rabbi Herschel Gluck OBE

Rabbi Herschel Gluck OBE is Chairman of the Arab-Jewish Forum of Great Britain and Chairman and founder of the Muslim-Jewish Forum, a ground-breaking organisation founded in 2000 to improve relations between Muslims and Jews in the UK and beyond. He is also the Chairman of Shomrim NE London, a community safety organisation that was praised in the United Nations after their work supporting Muslim neighbours in the wake of the 2017 terrorist attack in Finsbury Park. He is Deputy Chairman of the Next Century Foundation, working for peace and reconciliation in regions and countries suffering from conflict. He is Director of Ohr Avrohom, a charity which is engaged in educational and humanitarian projects in the UK and internationally,

Rabbi Gluck was appointed an OBE in the 2013 New Year Honours for services to interfaith understanding. In the past year he has been quoted in British Parliament for his lifetime commitment to inter-communal understanding and his work countering Anti-Semitism in the UK.

Join us by zoom to hear about the experiences of Rabbi Gluck when he attended a meeting with Muslim community in Lahore.
